NARRATIVE:

Nunez is a Valerio Street Gang member with the minoker of "Tiny / Shorty" who has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18 and includes convictions for dangerous weapons, terrorist threats, multiple possession of controlled substance, evading police, multiple corporal injury on spouse / cohabitant, vehicle theft and carrying a concealed weapon. Nunez has served multiple state prison terms the longest an five (5) year term for dangerous weapons. Nunez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 15, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in May 2013 after Nunez absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Nunez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for dangerous weapons is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang membership and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
