NARRATIVE:

Granell, a documented member of the Canta Ranans street gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 22. His convictions include battery, battery on a former spouse, attempted robbery, first degree burglary, possession of controlled substance, under the influence of a controlled substance, vehicle theft, resisting arrest, evading police with a disregard for public safety, possession of controlled substance while in prison, and violation of parole. Granell has served multiple state prison terms the longest an 11 year term for vehicle theft. Granell was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 11, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Granell qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substance while in prison, is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang association, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
