NARRATIVE:

Luna, an active gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history with his first conviction at age 19. His convictions include failure to appear, violations of parole by a felon, possession of dangerous weapons, possession of drug paraphernalia, resisting arrest, multiple narcotics convictions, felon/addict in possession of a firearm, and possession of controlled substances. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 16 month term for possessing/owning a firearm by a felon. Luna was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 5th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Luna qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for felon/addict in possession of a firearm is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, status as a gang member and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
