NARRATIVE:

Georgette Novobilsky has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 24. Her convictions include multiple charges for possession of controlled substances, theft, failure to appear, false identification to a peace officer, violation of parole, illegal possession of a syringe, petty theft, possession and purchase for sale of narcotic controlled substances, and prostitution. She has served multiple state prison terms, the longest a 2 year term for possession and purchase for sale of narcotic controlled substances. Novobilsky was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 14, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2014 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Novobilsky qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for possession and purchase for sale of narcotic controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
