NARRATIVE:

Tracy Strickland has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 23. Her convictions include several cases of battery and elder abuse, criminal trespassing, theft, prostitution, petty theft, contempt of court and failing to report. She has served multiple incarcerations, the longest a three (3) year term for elder abuse with injury. Strickland was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 25, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in August 2014 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Strickland qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for elder abuse with injury is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
