NARRATIVE:

Kevin Moore has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 24. His convictions include lewd and lascivious acts by force upon a minor younger than 14 years, attempted murder, assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, battery, failure to register a new address as a sex offender, violation of parole, failure to annually register as a sex offender and failing to report. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 22 year term for attempted murder. Moore was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 11, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Moore qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for failure to annually register as a sex offender is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
