

Re-establish Reward Offer – Dannie Farber, Jr.

On Sunday, May 24, 2009, at approximately 9:40 P.M., 18-year old Dannie Farber, Jr. was shot and killed while eating dinner with his girlfriend at a restaurant located on the 1900 block of Rosecrans Avenue in the City of Compton. An unknown assailant walked into the restaurant and shot Dannie four times. Dannie tragically succumbed to his wounds shortly thereafter.

Dannie was a senior at Narbonne High School and was set to graduate in June of 2009. He was a good student, a star All-City wide receiver on the Narbonne High School Gauchos football team, and had received a football scholarship to attend college.

Dannie was taken prematurely from his family, friends and classmates, and was not given the opportunity to fulfill his potential. The detectives from the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department Homicide Bureau have worked diligently and relentlessly in pursuing leads which would help solve this crime.

The Board of Supervisors approved the initial reward offer on May 26, 2009, which expired on August 24, 2009. The detectives from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Homicide Bureau have indicated that it would be helpful to re-establish this reward offer in hopes that someone will come forward with viable information.

I THEREFORE MOVE THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Re-establish the offer of a reward in the amount of $10,000 in exchange for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the murder of 18-year old Dannie Farber, Jr., who was shot and killed on Sunday, May 24, 2009, at approximately 9:40 P.M., in the 1900 block of Rosecrans Avenue in the City of Compton.
