

County of Los Angeles Board of Supervisors

SUPERVISOR FRED T. BEATY

Term: 1926 -1930
District: First
Date of Birth: May 23, 1886
Death: February 1937

Fred T. Beaty was twice elected to the Board of Supervisors, in 1926 and again in 1928.

Beaty was born in Pawnee City, Neb. on May 23, 1886. He moved to Los Angeles from the Midwest in 1906. Beaty was in the publishing business before entering into active civic and county work, and was especially identified with the furthering of countywide highway projects. Before becoming county supervisor, Beaty also was a former mayor of Los Angeles.

Beaty's credits include serving as president of the East Side Organization and as a member of the Jonathan Club and the Rotary Club. Beaty made his home in Montebello, the city which he helped found.

Beaty died of pneumonia in February 1937.
