78. Q: When are the property taxes due?

A: SECURED PROPERTY TAXES

Annual property tax bills are mailed in early October of each year. The bill is payable in two installments.

The 1st installment is due on November 1 and is delinquent if the payment is not received in the office by 5:00 p.m. or postmarked by December 10. A 10% penalty is assessed for delinquent payments.

The 2nd installment is due on February 1 and is delinquent if the payment is not received in the office by 5:00 p.m. or postmarked by April 10. A 10% penalty and a $10.00 cost fee are assessed.

If December 10 or April 10 falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, the delinquency date is the next business day.

Both installments can be paid at the same time, no later than the November 1 first installment date. If you choose to pay both installments in one payment, please include the first and second installment stubs with your payment.

UNSECURED PROPERTY TAXES

Unsecured tax bills are delinquent if the payment is not received by 5:00 p.m. or postmarked by August 31 of the tax year. If August 31 falls on a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, the deadline is the next business day.

<http://assessor.lacounty.gov/extranet/default.aspx>

80. Q: Is the Assessment Appeals Board part of the Assessor's Office?

A: No. The Assessor's Office places the value on all properties in Los Angeles County. If a taxpayer disagrees with the Assessor as to the property value, an appeal can be filed with the Assessment Appeals Board. If the appeal is filed timely, an Assessment Appeals hearing will be granted. For more information, log onto <http://bos.co.la.ca.us/categories/propertytaxappeals.htm>

81. Q: I disagree with my property tax assessment. What can I do?

A: You can file an appeal with the Assessment Appeals Board during the appropriate filing period. For information, call the Assessment Appeals Public Information Line at (213) 974-1471 or log onto:
<http://bos.co.la.ca.us/Categories/PropertyTaxAppeals.tm>

82. Q: I just purchased a piece of property. How long will it be before I receive a Supplemental Tax Bill?

A: The Assessor's Office has up to four (4) years to record the Change of Ownership and place a value on your property. However, they usually send out the Supplemental Tax Bill within about a year. For more information, log onto <http://assessor.lacounty.gov/>

83. Q: I just received a Supplemental Tax Bill (or Adjusted, Corrected or Escape tax bill) with which I disagree. Should I contact my local Assessor's Office and try to work out a solution?

A: Contact your local Assessor's Office regarding the bill, but file an appeal with the Assessment Appeals Board to protect your rights. For more information, call (213) 974-1471.

84. Q: How do I get an Assessment Appeals application?

A: You can request an application 24 hours a day by calling our automated system at (213) 974-1471 or log onto: <http://bos.co.la.ca.us/categories/propertytaxappeals.htm>

86. Q: When is the assessment appeals filing period?

A: For Regular Assessment (Annual Tax Bills), July 2 – September 15.

For Supplemental, Adjusted, Corrected or Escape bills, it is 60 days from the mailing date on the bill.

For more information, call (213) 974-1471.

87. Q: How long does it take an assessment appeals application to be resolved?

A: A hearing will be scheduled within the first year of filing. The Assessment Appeals Board has two (2) years from the date of filing to hear your case. For more information, call (213)974-1471.

88. Q: How will I be informed of my Assessment Appeals Hearing?
- A: You will be notified by mail of your appointment. The appointment card will have the location, date and time of your hearing. For more information, call (213) 974-1471.
89. Q: I just purchased a piece of property. Why is the assessed value more than what I paid for it?
- A: The assessed value is based on what the Assessor's Office believes the open market value is which is not always the same as the purchase price.
90. Q: How can I get information about my property values?
- A: Log onto the Los Angeles County Portal Website at: <http://lacountypropertytax.com/portal/list/faq.aspx>
91. Q: I inherited property from my parents. Why was the property reassessed?
- A: If you inherit property from your parents, you have to fill out a Proposition 58 (Transfer of Property between Parents/Children) form with the Assessor's Office. Otherwise, the Assessor's Office will reassess the property. For more information, log onto: <http://assessor.lacounty.gov/>
92. Q: I owned property with my brother, who later changed it into my name alone. Is this a change of ownership?
- A: Yes, but if you had a 50% interest in the property, it is considered to be only a 50% change in ownership. 50% will keep the old base year value, and only the new transferred 50% portion will be reassessed. For more information, log onto: <http://assessor.lacounty.gov/>
93. Q: How do I find out why a lien was filed on my property?
- A: Liens are created as a result of a lawsuit. Certified copies of judgments, which affect title to real property, may be recorded. The Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk serves notification by mail to debtors when an involuntary lien is recorded against them. If you have received a copy of a lien and have questions, you must contact the person or agency that filed the lien. For more information, log onto: http://www.lavote.net/RECORDE/Document_Recording.cfm or call (562) 462-2125.

94. Q: How do i find out the name of the owner of a particular property?
- A: The Assessor's Office keeps the property assessment roll, which lists the assessee (normally the property owner). The roll may be inspected by the public at the main office or regional offices. For a list of the offices, log onto:
<http://www.lacountyassessor.com/extranet/contactus/districtOffice.aspx>.
