NARRATIVE:

Antonio Rincon is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include domestic violence on spouse, illegal possession of ammo, possession of firearm by felon, disorderly conduct, obstructing and resisting a peace officer, possession of narcotic controlled substances, terrorist threats with firearm, possession of marijuana for sale, violation of gang injunction, vandalism and violation of parole. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 52 month term for terrorist threat with firearm. Rincon was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 08, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Rincon qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of firearm by felon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
