NARRATIVE:

Erick Buchanan has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include rape of a child with force, vehicle tampering, violation of parole, receiving known stolen property, theft, carrying a concealed weapon in a vehicle, carrying a loaded firearm in a public place, false ID to a peace officer, hit and run with property damage, DUI, inflicting corporal injury on spouse, assault on peace officer, carrying a concealed dirk or dagger, violation of a protection order, and possession of controlled substances. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 6 year term for assault on a peace officer. Buchanan was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 26, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Buchanan qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
