NARRATIVE:

Roboraldo Silva has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 35. His convictions include burglary, lewd and lascivious acts with a child under 14 years of age with force, battery, violation of parole, assault to commit rape, false imprisonment, failure to register as a sex offender, inflicting corporal injury on spouse, transport/sales of narcotic controlled substances, and possession of controlled substances. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 6 year term for lewd and lascivious acts with a child under 14 years with force. Silva was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 10, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Silva qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for transport/sales of narcotic controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
