| IV. CONSENT CALENDAR   |   |                         |
| • May 15, 2025, Meeting Minutes were approved.  |   | 7:44    |
| • Commission's 2024 Annual Report. This item was deferred to later in the meeting.  |   | 8:18    |
| Chair noted the 2024 annual report is missing an organizational chart. Chair said the Commission's org chart should show the Executive Director reports to the Commission. The current version shows the Executive Director reports to the Board of Supervisor's Executive Officer instead. He encouraged the incoming Commission Chair to work with EO Yen on revising the org chart.. |   | 2:38:36 |
| Chair made a motion, seconded by Commissioner Hicks, to approve the 2024 Annual Report.   |   |                         |
| • Commissioner Cooper requested clarification regarding the organizational chart.   |   | 2:45:23 |
| Chair deferred public comment on item IV Annual Report and moved to item IX, OIG report.  |   | 2:47:20 |
| V. FAMILY IMPACT REMARKS   |   |                         |
| • No action on this item  |   |                         |
| VI. UNFINISHED BUSINESS  |   |                         |
| Chair Bonner briefly discussed the Quality of Life Ad Hoc Committee Report and revised Recommendations on Los Angeles Sheriff's Department (LASD) Staff Wellness and Suicide Prevention.MOTION: moved by Chair Bonner, seconded by Commissioner Cooper, for the Commissions to adopt all 4 recommendations.  |   | 8:59    |

| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vice Chair Luis Garcia provided a follow up presentation that highlighted updated recommendations based on previous discussion on suicide prevention and employee wellness initiatives within the LASD. He addressed LASD's concerns with recommendations #2 and #3 requiring LASD to review and modify their psychological response to critical incident policies and procedures and to identify a place on their public-facing website to post annual Psychological Services Bureau data. Vice Chair Garcia noted that the Commission's proposed recommendations aim to clarify duties and enhance oversight of the Sheriff's department. Vice Chair announced a 5th recommendation for the Commission and OIG to receive a report back in writing from LASD by September 5, 2025, regarding mechanisms for enhancing LASD suicide prevention efforts. Following the presentation, Vice Chair Garcia acknowledged LASD's subject matter expert Heather Staufenberg, Assistant Bureau Chief, Psychological Services Bureau (PSB).</li> </ul> | 10:02 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Assistant Bureau Chief Director Staufenberg provided an overview of the LASD's ongoing initiatives to support and improve the mental health and wellness of its sworn personnel. She highlighted the range of services available to LASD personnel and presented statistics from the first quarter of 2024, noting a 23% increase in appointments, a 17% rise in outreach efforts, and a 29% growth in field consultations compared to the previous quarter.</li> </ul>  | 18:00 |

| VIII. COMMISSION/LASD REPORTS   |                         |

|---|-------------------------|
| A. Chair's Report <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Chair Bonner announced that this would be his final report as Chair of the Commission. He outlined his three priority goals that included: Securing the Board of Supervisors' adoption of revisions to section 3.79 of the County ordinance, initiating legal action to enforce Measure R and advocating for the passage of AB 847 that would grant oversight commissions the authority to subpoena documents discussed in closed session. Chair Bonner noted the Commission's 27 recommendations on deputy gangs and cliques are its most important recommendation. Despite the fact that his term ends on July 17, 2025, he will continue to devote time and energy toward the priority goals mentioned.</li> <li>2. Chair Bonner provided an update on the proposed revisions to Section 3.79 of the County Ordinance. He noted that revisions have not been placed on the Board of Supervisors (BOS) agenda, but he remains confident that the BOS will ultimately approve them. Chair also reported that, at the request of the Justice Deputies, the Commission drafted additional language to be included in the revisions to ensure that the Commission protects the confidentiality of peace officer information and that County Counsel (CoCo) has not responded to the proposed changes, causing further delay.</li> <li>3. Chair Bonner reported that AB 847 will appear at the Senate Public Safety Committee agenda on July 8, 2025, and recommended submitting a letter of support. He moved, seconded by Vice Chair Johnson, to authorize the Chair to draft and send a support letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee. Chair called for a voice vote on the motion.</li> </ol> | 39:44   |
| Motion to direct the Chair to draft a letter in support of AB 847 to the Senate Judiciary Committee.  |                         |
| VOICE VOTE: Bonner, Calloway, Cooper, Garcia, Giggans, Hicks, Johnson <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 7 Ayes: Bonner, Calloway, Cooper, Garcia, Giggans, Hicks, Johnson</li> <li>• 0 Nays</li> <li>• 1 Absent: Harris</li> </ul> Motion passed 7-0  | 55:22   |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>4. Chair Bonner provided an update on the Commission's plans to enforce its three subpoenas related to use of force cases against Joseph Perez, Andres Guardado and Emmett Brock. Chair Bonner shared the key points in the written report and advised that no response to the enforcement action has been filed by the County on behalf of the Commission. Following his report, Chair Bonner returned to item VII A.</li> </ol>  | 56:00   |
| B. Executive Director's (ED) Report Deputy Executive Director (DED) Bikila Ochoa shared the ED report in the absence of ED Moseley. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. DED Ochoa informed the Commission that staff is collaborating with the Executive Office on a special project to develop a standardized onboarding process for all new County commissioners.</li> <li>2. DED Ochoa highlighted recent and ongoing Commissioner and staff activities, including internal operations, trainings, upcoming events, and community engagement.</li> <li>3. DED Ochoa reported that he was tasked with reviewing the status of the Commission's strategic plan, to be agendaized for discussion in September.</li> <li>4. DED Ochoa provided a staffing update, noting that the Commission is still working to fill the Sr. Analyst position and that the Commission will onboard two summer interns soon.</li> <li>5. DED Ochoa announced several upcoming events, including a virtual listening session in July on deputy gangs. He also mentioned the possibility of postponing the COC's annual conference to next year to align with its 10-year anniversary.</li> </ol>   | 2:18:42 |
| Vice Chair Johnson inquired about hosting National Association for Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE) in Los Angeles.  | 2:24:59 |
| Chair Bonner moved to the Sheriff's report.  | 2:25:21 |
| C. Sheriff's Report (Assistant Sheriff Jason Skeen)   | 2:26:10 |

|   |                         |
|---|-------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Assistant Sheriff Skeen reported that LASD is reviewing its response to the recent demonstrations and unrest over the recent weeks. He highlighted improvements to employee wellness and staff positions, by funding nine positions to support within the Psychological Services Bureau (PSB). Assistant Sheriff Skeen reported a decrease in crime by over 10.7% and noted a reduction of 3,841 part one crimes as of this week and an approximate decrease of 665 part one crimes per month. In closing, Assistant Sheriff Skeen reported that LASD staffing has improved, with a net gain of 123 sworn personnel and that the increase was achieved by reducing vacancies and impairments.</li> </ul> |                         |
| Vice Chair Johnson inquired about LASD's involvement with enforcing immigration efforts.  | 2:28:41 |
| Chair Bonner noted that state law allows the Sheriff to transfer custody of undocumented individuals convicted of serious crimes and that not adhering to that sends Immigration and Custody Enforcement (ICE) into the community to apprehend those individuals.   | 2:30:08 |
| Assistant Sheriff Skeen confirmed that LASD follows and enforces the law and that inmates are transferred over to federal agencies if a lawful order is presented.  | 2:31:38 |
| Chief Deputy Inspector General Dara Williams advised that LASD will release inmates with violent crimes to federal agencies with the proper detainer and arrest warrant and if the judicial warrant is only signed by ICE, they will not release the inmate. Chair Bonner then returned to item IV.   | 2:32:18 |
| BREAK: 11:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.   |                         |
|   |                         |
| IX. A. OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL (OIG) UPDATE  |                         |
| A. OIG Chief Deputy Dara Williams discussed the OIG's 2025 First Quarter report. She noted that a section in the report that addresses immigration and highlighted LASD's live scan process and noted the place of birth for all inmates is sent to the Federal Government. Ms. Williams reported that, in her role as Chief Deputy of the OIG, she was denied access to crime scenes on multiple occasions and that a letter was sent to the BOS regarding OIG's position on the issue. Chief Deputy Williams then reported on budget curtailments, the inmate welfare fund and delays with OIG requests.   | 2:48:03 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Chair Bonner inquired if OIG should be allowed on the scene when use of lethal force is used.</li> </ul>   | 3:00:06 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Assistant Sheriff Skeen encouraged Chief Deputy Williams to continue rolling out to the scenes.</li> </ul>   |                         |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Commissioner Calloway questioned what can be done to ensure OIG has access to every scene.</li> </ul>  | 3:03:20 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Commissioner Cooper recommended documenting the date, time, officer on scene.</li> </ul>   | 3:07:32 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vice Chair Johnson advised that the agenda for next Commission meeting would include an update to confirm that the OIG's access to crime scenes has been restored.</li> </ul>  | 3:08:05 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Commissioner Calloway inquired if there is an LASD policy regarding informal meetings.</li> </ul>  | 3:09:58 |
