Diana Rodriguez

Chair

Latinas Lead California

Diana Rodriguez serves as Chair of Latinas Lead California Political Action Committee, a non-partisan organization committed to promoting and advancing qualified Latinas for elected office at the local and state level. As Chair, Ms. Rodriguez has worked on several campaigns at the local, state and federal levels of government.

Ms. Rodriguez has ten years of experience as a lobbyist advocating in the areas of education, water and local government issues. She is responsible for coalition building and identifying resources that successfully led to the completion of major community development projects. Some of the projects Diana has worked on include: Yvonne Burke-John D. Ham Park and Senator Lara Linear Park, City of Lynwood; Riverfront Park, City of Maywood; Clara Street Project, City of Cudahy and Raul R. Perez Memorial Park Project, City of Huntington Park.

In 2013, Ms. Rodriguez was selected as a recipient of the Regional Hispanic Institute Mujeres Del Año Lobbyist of the Year. She has served on several Boards, including the Los Angeles Neighborhood Land Trust, Hispanas Organized for Political Equality (HOPE) and as a City of Los Angeles Affordable Housing Commissioner.

Ms. Rodriguez continues to be involved with local and national issues that affect the Latino Community. She is a current member of the Long Beach Women's Business Council and serves as the Government Affairs representative at the Government Affairs Council for the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce.
