

Dashboard Glossary

Term	Definition	Additional Context
777 WIC Violation	Individuals currently in juvenile hall pending disposition to a violation of a previous order which removed the youth from the custody of a parent, guardian, and directed placement in a foster home
AOS	Youth assault on staff
Attempted Escape	Incident involving youth attempting to escape the facility
Camp and DKC Case Return: Court	Individuals currently detained in a juvenile hall who were previously dispositioned and placed at Camp or DKC but have returned to juvenile hall pending a court date
Camp and DKC Case Return: Other	Individuals who were previously dispositioned and placed at Camp but have returned to juvenile hall pending a non-medical or court related appointment
Camp and DKC Court Return: Medical-	Individuals who were previously dispositioned and placed at Camp or DKC but have returned to juvenile hall pending a medical appointment at an off-site facility
Camp Placement: New	Individuals currently in a juvenile hall after being dispositioned to Camp Placement and are pending an initial move to Camp
Case Pending Disposition	Individuals currently in a juvenile hall pending adjudication which will decide whether they go into a long-term detention or are released from juvenile hall.
Community Detention Program	Individuals currently in a juvenile hall that were participating in a Community Detention Program immediately prior
DCFS	Individuals currently in juvenile hall with dual DCFS/Probation supervision that are waiting to be released to DCFS
Decontamination Within Policy	Yes or No answers provided by Probation to indicate compliance with policy
Disruptive Behavior	Out of control behavior, near fight, or out of bounds
DKC Placement: New	Individuals currently detained in a juvenile hall who have been dispositioned to Dorothy Kirby Center (DKC) and are pending an initial move to DKC	DKC is a locked facility that provides Intensive Day Treatment program for youth with significant mental health needs that would otherwise go unmet at a camp. Not to be confused with a community suitable placement
Facility	Location where incident occurred	Currently, OC spray is issued for use at two juvenile hall facilities in Los Angeles County, Barry J. Nidorf

Dashboard Glossary

		Juvenile Hall (BJNJH) and Central Juvenile Hall (CJH).
Facility	Physical Location of Youth
Gender	Male, Female, Transgender	Probation staff identify a youth's gender at intake and the youth is offered the opportunity to self-identify
Government Hold	A broad categorization used when an individual is detained in a juvenile hall while technically under Federal or out-of-county jurisdiction that is not currently able to house the youth while transfer is pending
Incident Type	A description of the event that prompted the use of OC spray. Probation indicates five incident types that can lead to the use of OC spray
Injury to Youth	Any injury youth sustained during the incident from OC spray or from the underlying incident or response to the incident
Major Disturbance:	An incident involving 10 or more youth
Out-of-State Transfer	Individuals currently in a juvenile hall pending transfer to another state's jurisdiction
Pending Transfer to County Jail	Individuals currently in a juvenile hall pending transfer to Los Angeles County Jail
Pending Transfer to DJJ	Individuals currently in a juvenile hall pending transfer to the Department of Juvenile Justice	This category no longer exists since the closure of the state DJJ. Refer to facility timeline
Phase Out Stage:	Probation has been ordered to phase out OC spray at all facilities and the Department created two phase-out plans which have not been implemented. This section should indicate progress by noting one of the following answers for each incident - TPA, Restricted, Eliminate	TPA (Training, Programming, and Assessment) - The initial period of adjustment to begin the OC spray phase out process Restricted: Two members of each unit per shift will be authorized to carry OC spray Secured: Housing units will place two OC canisters in a secure location in the unit office for issuance during an emergency. Eliminate: OC Spray has been phased out of the unit
Secure Youth Treatment Facility:	Eligible youth is a youth who has been adjudicated in the juvenile delinquency court and ordered to remain at a secure detention facility for a specified period of time to receive supportive programming before they return to live in the community	The Secure Youth Treatment Facility Program was established as a response to Senate Bill 823 (Sept. 2020) which initiated the closure of the California Department of Rehabilitation Division of Juvenile Justice

Dashboard Glossary

Suitable Placement – New	Youth currently in a juvenile hall after being dispositioned to Suitable Placement and who are pending an initial move to a suitable placement in the community	Suitable Placement is a type of dispositional order used when other restrictive sanctions have not yet resolved identified issues, and/or when family and/or emotional issues factor into the youth’s behavior. Youth are placed in varied environments, which may include and smaller group home environment, a larger foster home facility, or a small family home
Suitable Placement: Detained Pending Court	Individuals who were previously dispositioned and placed at a Suitable Placement but have returned to juvenile hall pending a court date with or without new charges
Suitable Placement: Detained Pending Replacement	Youth who were previously dispositioned and placed at a Suitable Placement but have returned to juvenile hall pending assignment to a new Suitable Placement without new charges	Explain further
Unit / Location	The assigned unit of the youth involved and, most often, the location of the disbursed OC spray	When dispersed in another location, the unit is still listed with the location in parentheses, i.e. AB (Gym), LM (School)
Video Reviewed	An answer of N/A applies primarily to BJNH where it has been established that there is inadequate CCTV surveillance and therefore often no video of the incident	Yes, No, or N/A
YOYV:	Youth on youth violence	