II. DISCUSSIONS

3. Discussion about planning for the YEC End-Year Event in October and current survey results. (24-4062)

Max Wertz, Staff, Youth Commission (YC/Commission), opened the floor to discussion regarding the planning of the Youth Engagement Committee (YEC) End-Year Event (Event). He reported that the YEC survey results have been finalized and presented the YEC End-Year Report (Report).

Discussion ensued regarding the following topics:

- Potential questions and/or themes proposed after the data is presented to the Stakeholders at the Event were:
  - How can the Commission assist in your efforts?
  - How do current efforts connect with the data presented in the Report? How can you expand on those efforts based on the data given?
  - How can we bridge the gap between Los Angeles County departments and their efforts.
- Commissioners agreed to begin with district presentations, followed by the YEC presentation, and to recess after the data is presented, followed by a debrief.
- The YEC Survey and how that can be modified to reach target audience and streamline data.
- Two presentations will take place; a YEC presentation on the survey data and a district specific presentation that will run three to five minutes with slides of their respective data.
- Presentation slides proposed were: Lessons Learned, Potential Collaborations, Emphasis on Mental Health, and Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC).
- Check-ins were suggested during the presentation to allow Stakeholders and attendees to join in on the conversation, as well as allowing time for Questions and Answers.

4. Discussion about revising the YEC survey questions for 2025. (24-4070)

Commissioner Clarissa Peña opened the floor to discussion regarding revising the Youth Engagement Committee (YEC) survey questions for 2025.

Max Weltz, Staff, Youth Commission (YC/Commission), brought forth suggestions from the YC staff, noting that Commissioners may want to reconsider adding additional questions to the survey.

A discussion ensued on how to modify the survey and/or survey questions to streamline the data. Commissioners agreed that adding a clarifying question for questions one and two may be necessary to obtain targeted data.

Based on questions posed by Commissioners, Mr. Weltz, clarified that the data is tracked immediately following the respective listening session.
