89. Narrative Report

90. Narrative Continued

Upon walking into 4800, the module appeared cleaner than previous visits (including the stairs, hallway, lack of trash around – though there was still a smoke smell and two fires in cells seen by inspectors). It was noted to the Commissioners that Sheriff Luna was visiting MCJ at the same time, explaining the change in condition. In 4800B, not all the cell doors were fully working and were either jammed or completely unlocked. Commissioners talked with two individuals in the hallway of a row, as their door was completely open (and broken). Deputies on the floor were aware of the ongoing door issue. Multiple cells had phones that were inoperable (stated for months), and there was no hot water in the unit shower. Commissioners heard about the lack of hot water from multiple individuals who reported the issue was ongoing. Individuals also had limited access to the showers, complaining that they were going a week without showering at times due to deputies not allowing them out to the shower. Multiple individuals in the module complained that a search was conducted and their property was taken, including photos, letters, phone number cards, and commissary items. Individuals requested wipes during the flu season to avoid the spread of germs but were not provided the requested wipes or cleaning products; a row noted they had just gotten through the flu and were requesting sanitation/clean up and did not receive it. Individuals complained they were not receiving enough food showing Commissioners two slices of bread with no bologna or filling inside whatsoever for lunch. Individuals complained of the rise in commissary prices twice a year and how expensive items were for purchase. Individuals did not have access to grievance forms and Commissioners requested Deputies pass out forms and stayed until forms were provided to all requested.

In 5800, individuals complained that only 1 of the 6 phones were working when 100 individuals are housed in the unit. An individual was observed sitting on a mattress with a mask over his face next to the restroom. It was reported that this individual did not have a bed and was recently arrived to the form. When reported to the Deputy, Commissioners were told often people do not choose to sit on their bed but the Deputy was asked to confirm this individual did in fact have access to a bed in the unit and to communicate it to him. SBC did not hear follow-up. The temperature in the unit was reported to be extremely cold, especially in the morning and the water in the showers remains too hot. One shower head runs all day long and multiple showers have rust and mold. One of the toilets in the unit has leaked constantly for months. Individuals reported waiting weeks for hormone treatments and lacking access to panties and bras in a variety of sizes, as well as feminine items like mascara, combs, or other hygiene items. High protein meals were not being given to those who were authorized them by medical and food was overall arriving cold and not in sufficient quality as reported by multiple individuals. Many reports of hunger across the dorm. Individuals did not have access to grievance forms and similar to the other unit, Commissioners requested and stayed until a Deputy passed out forms to individuals in the unit. Although a netting was placed at the unit door for purposes of nurses speaking to individuals during pill calls, individuals complained that Deputies and nurses were calling out "Come and get your __ pill", sharing personal medical information that they did not want to be shared with others out – violating HIPAA. This was reported to the Watch Commander Lt. Bengston and the on-duty Medical Supervisor, who told the Commissioners that proper training was ongoing to medical staff and would be reinforced.

	In 1750G, an individual complained of a flooding toilet and blocked their vent with toilet paper because the cell was too cold. The individual requested they be moved and the request was communicated to the Deputy, who confirmed it would be completed as soon as another cell became available. Cell 4 had a window that was so dirty the Commissioners could not observe the conditions of the cell inside, but the individual complained of tagging and the cell being extremely dirty. Overall, 1750G was the cleanest commissioners had ever seen it.
