This location is centered around attending to serious medical needs of incarcerated individuals. Those admitted into this facility are in need of a higher level of care that is unavailable at standard jail facilities. Those who are incarcerated and transferred to this facility are housed in wards associated with hospital care needs which unavailable/different than what inspectors normally see at jail facilities during inspections.

47. COMMENTS RE: Medical

Two specific observations:

1. No trustees were present during inspection - Not sure if trustees are assigned at this location.
2. Although dental issues were not specifically covered in inspection, it is suggested that any subsequent inspections ask if this is a condition this facility can address, if needed.
