62. Deputy Staffing COMMENTS RE: Quality of Interactions w/Detainees

The four people detained in the jail were asleep when we conducted our inspection. We were informed we had arrived on an unusually slow night. Our goal had been to see how the jail operated on a weekend at night, but the jail was rather quiet and we did not get to speak to the men incarcerated there because they were asleep. The one person we spoke to said he was okay, so it was difficult to get a sense of what the interactions with the men detained there was like from their perspective. The sheriff reported that the interactions were fine except for the medical issues detailed above.

However, the station retains a lot of the offensive "cap and boot" logos, which we observed in the deputies' break room (a circular emblem about two feet in diameter) and an illuminated logo with a number next to it apparently identifying various rooms.
