77. Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) COMMENTS:

We heard multiple reports of deputies of the opposite gender watching women showering in lewd, non-necessary for confinement reasons/circumstances and then commenting on their bodies when conducting checks with lewd remarks. We heard multiple instances of the same deputies names shared across multiple modules, which is in line with names we have heard and reported to LASD at previous inspections in the past months. We also spoke with an individual who shared her story of rape by a deputy and the retaliation she has faced since -- and the lack of any services provided to her.

Grievance forms were not available; in one instance we were told if someone wanted a pencil to fill out a grievance form, the deputy would have to fill out the grievance form for them, which defeats the purpose of a grievance form...

122. Narrative Report

Major Concerns:

1. PREA Complaints and Allegations -- these were shared verbally on the phone with Captain Martin. There were multiple complaints shared with the SBC against multiple LASD staff members for sexual harassment, observation of women in showers, and rape.

As we have shared after visits to CRDF over the last 6 months, we are hearing lots of concerning reports of specific deputies watching women showering and then asking to see their body parts when doing their walks later. There are fears of retaliation.

2. Extreme Filth -- the module was covered in trash in the day room and individual rooms. There were flies/gnats around, including near the grievance form box and the sink in the day room. There was old food on the tables, visible mold in the showers, and cobwebs/layers of dirt and filth on cell doors and on the floor.

3. Water Quality and Conditions -- As SBC continues to raise, we observed water coming out of the tap that was brown in color. We observed rust in showers, mold, and small black flies (dead) on the floor of the shower and around the drain. Request: Provide free water bottles to the women if the water is undrinkable.

123. Narrative Continued
