108. Narrative Report

151

General

- there was a deputy sleeping among multiple other deputies, who did not wake up when we approached with a question. They were in the process of waking him up when we were leaving the module. He was in the main surveillance area for the module.
- there was a man in a suicide gown receiving 1:1 services. The gown was positioned inappropriately low.
- deputies shared they put on the body cams when they go in the pods but they do not have them on. They only turn them on if an incident ensues.

- graffiti on cell walls
- upstairs there was leaking in the ceiling, with a large sign that said leak, and there were buckets in the hallway collecting water. It appeared that sells were unusable because of the leak

- Not all dayroom tables are usable because one of the tables did not have handcuffs and one gentleman reported that they sometimes miss out of cell time because only three people can go out.
- Incarcerated people curious why they haven't had cereal in breakfast lately
- a man was in a blue suicide gown but did not know why she was designated as such and was requested regular attire
- man shared that the environment was not conducive to his wellness because the noisiness was overstimulating. He reported it was his first time having access to a phone in 2 weeks
- cell 6 had no water for 6 days
- reported they were not getting FISH kits for 3 weeks after 1 person had an incident with a razor.
- cell 2, the water pressure was low, causing it to leak and create puddle more than 3 feet away from the cell, producing a terrible smell, and causing mold. It ran for 2 minutes

- had no complaint forms 151B had one form and the forms in the box were from today, and the sergeant confirmed that he picks them up on every shift.
- reported feeling consistent hunger after meal times
- many were sleeping on the floor for temperature control because they get hot

162

We observed a group, either mental health or EBI in 162 a there were about 15 people sitting in chairs, listening to an instructor, people were not handcuffed, and a couple of people were standing up. The deputies were not in the room, they were sitting at their station behind us.

We spoke to a couple of trustees who report that they clean cells and distribute food. They do so in order to pass the time faster and a couple of them indicated they earn time credits when they are sentenced. They did not know how or if they earned credits if they go to prison. They did not apply for the job. They were asked at the IRC if they wanted to be inmate workers.

We observed a security walk conducted in 162. We stood in the inside booth where the custody assistant works. We observed the deputies walk across the six pods and complete all security checks for all people housed there in approximately three minutes. We observed during that check and checks on 151 where the deputies are not looking inside the cells, but rather walking along and bar scanning quickly in order to complete the task.

In the pod where we sat with the custody assistants, we also observed lights just flashing, when we asked what that was for we were told that is if somebody is pushing the emergency button, but the people has here are mentally ill so staff do not respond to those. The inmates are able to get people's attention when the deputies do their security checks, which are every 15 minutes.
