Prea complaint after a couple if weeks regarding a use of force in IRC when he came into the jail but did not get a response form LASD after a month. Included in the issues he faced, was that they paraded hi around IRC without covering up his private parts, including in front of a female, and he was taunted. After the incident, he was place in 172 before being place as a K10.He has no history of suicide, and he has been GP during prior incarcerations. The jail did not respond to his complaint. Once he managed to contact OIG, a sergeant came and saw him the other day. However the Sgt said that he has to talk to the IRC because this occurred in a different facility. He has received no further information. Noted, he also reported that he he asked to drop his pants and cough every time he leaves his cell. W/C said deputies have the discretion for these kinds of searches.
