Negotiate and execute developer agreements within established budgeted amounts in the Districts' Accumulative Capital Outlay funds, for financial participation and/or construction of necessary infrastructure improvements that address water supply reliability, water quality impacts, infrastructure hardening, and climate resilience investments needed to support the continued growth of the region as a condition for obtaining water service, which delegation shall extend to the initiation of any legal processes for financial participation, as well as to the negotiation and execution of other agreements as necessary or convenient to achieve the stated purposes and implement such development agreements.

Take the following actions to comply with CEQA for projects, in connection with the exercise of the delegated authority to execute developer agreements when one or more of the Los Angeles County Waterworks Districts is acting as Responsible Agency for the proposed agreements, revisions, or amendments described herein:

25. Reclaiming Wages for Workers through Worker-Centric Approaches

Revised recommendation as submitted by Supervisors Mitchell and Solis: Direct the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Affairs (DCBA), through the Office of Labor Equity (OLE), or designee, to engage the California Department of Industrial Relations (DIR), through the California Labor Commissioner, to be able to collect fines and fees for enforcing state violations as outlined under Labor Code section 1205 and delegate authority to DCBA to enter into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the State Labor Commissioner if necessary to collect fines and fees payable to Los Angeles County (County). Report back to the Board in writing within 90 days on the status of outreach to DIR, any obstacles to executing an MOU, and how the County will leverage Senate Bill 261's fee recovery authorities alongside Assembly Bill 3075-enabled enforcement and report back with a recommended process to apportion collected fines and fees among County departments to enhance outreach, education, and enforcement.

Direct the Director of DCBA, or designee, to expand the County's co-enforcement model through DCBA's executed contract with worker organization(s) by:

Reporting back to the Board in 90 days with recommended restructuring of DCBA's Outreach, Education, and Support Services Contract with the Warehouse Workers Center (CA-26-003) to include additional worker centers as grantees or subgrantees to further a strategic and collaborative co-enforcement model to the extent that funding is available. The report back should include recommendations to restructure the Outreach, Education, and Support Services Contract while addressing: (1) which additional worker centers would be added as grantees or subgrantees within existing resources, (2) how outreach models used by the California DIR Workers' Rights Enforcement Grant, the California Workplace Outreach Project, and the Public Health Council program can inform DCBA's enforcement program, (3) a concrete implementation timeline tied to the next contract renewal opportunity inclusive of a proposed metrics and expected outcomes that will inform ongoing implementation.

Convening bi-monthly meetings between DCBA, the Department of Public Health's (DPH) Office of Worker Health and Safety (OWHS), and the Office of County Counsel's Affirmative Litigation and Consumer Protection Division (ALCP), in consultation with an advisory body of worker centers, including but not limited to the Los Angeles Worker Center Network, public health council organizations, and legal aid organizations. The worker advisory body should help develop and inform enforcement strategies, identify and prioritize high-risk industries and employers, and strengthen DCBA's co-enforcement model.

Direct the Director of DCBA and DPH to explore deeper partnership opportunities between OLE and OWHS, including: (1) referrals to other regulatory bodies, such as DPH and Cal/OSHA, when worksites have issues outside of OLE's jurisdiction or scope; and (2) opportunities for DCBA and DPH to partner on external communications for strategic enforcement campaigns. Report back to the Board in writing on progress in 90 days.

Direct the Director of DCBA, through OLE and in coordination with OWHS and ALCP, to create enforcement campaigns with strategic communications in consultation with worker centers and labor unions to identify a list of at least five priority low-wage industries to target each fiscal year that have the highest violations of wage theft.

The priority industries for the year should be published annually each year and highlighted and reflected in DCBA's budget submissions. DCBA should also identify and pursue necessary resources to support these priorities, as appropriate.

Direct DCBA, along with the Chief Executive Office's Countywide Communications branch, to launch strategic communications campaigns for each industry selected every year, including outreach materials, pressers, op-eds, and strategic paid and earned media to the extent funding is available, and report back to the Board in writing on progress in 90 days including how campaigns will work with contracted worker organizations for increased outreach and co-enforcement.

Direct the Director of DCBA, to report back to the Board in writing within 90 days on creating a multi-tiered system that assigns cases a high, medium, and low priority and sets an income limit to prioritize the lowest wage workers. The multi-tiered system should include metrics to identify high priority cases if the case is in a priority industry, has a large number of workers affected, severity of violations, and potential to cause beneficial ripple effect in the industry; medium priority to cases with fewer workers, fewer violations; and lower priority to cases with one or few affected workers and where the disputed amount is below a proposed specified threshold not to exceed $1000. The multi-tiered priority system should be made public on the OLE's website once implemented. The report back should describe how the framework will be implemented and communicated to the public in a manner that promotes transparency while maintaining necessary enforcement discretion. The framework shall serve as a guide and shall not limit the Department's authority to investigate any complaint or take enforcement action as appropriate.

Direct the Director of DCBA, in collaboration with the Chief Information Officer, County Counsel, and relevant County technology partners, to publicize adjudicated cases in a public-facing dashboard, including the name of the establishment penalized by OLE, the specific ordinance section violated by the employer, the number of workers impacted, and the financial penalty levied by OLE.

Report back to the Board in writing in 90 days on the metrics that will be tracked on the public dashboard and work in consultation with worker organizations, labor unions, and the City of Los Angeles' Office of Wage Standards to develop metrics. Launch the public dashboard within 120 days.

Direct the Director of DCBA, in collaboration with the Chief Information Officer, County Counsel and relevant County technology partners, to report back to the Board in writing within 90 days with an assessment of tools and technologies, including the use of artificial intelligence and data analytics, that could enhance the Department's capacity to conduct wage audits, identify potential violations, and support enforcement activities. The assessment shall evaluate feasibility, resource requirements, data privacy and security considerations, and potential risks and benefits, and include recommendations for how such tools could be responsibly deployed to improve efficiency and enforcement impact.

Direct the Director of DCBA, to expand efforts to build upon existing partnerships with incorporated cities within the County that do not have local enforcement authority on worker protection ordinances, with a focus on areas where there is a demonstrated need for enforcement and aligned partnership opportunities. Grant delegated authority to the department to enter or amend agreements with interested cities and municipalities where there are high worker violations and interested partners.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Board or required by law, waive the requirements of Board Policy No. 5.100 and authorize the Director of DCBA to prepare and execute agreements, and any amendments to existing agreements, approved as to form by County Counsel, with attorneys, consultants, non-profit organizations, or community-based organizations to support the directives of this motion. 26. Made in Los Angeles Program Pilot: Harnessing Los Angeles County's Purchasing Power to Support Local Manufacturing

Revised recommendation as submitted by Supervisors Mitchell and Solis: Direct the Director of the Internal Services Department (ISD), in coordination with the Director of the Department of Economic Opportunity (DEO), to design the Made in Los Angeles Program pilot (pilot) and report back to the Board in writing in one hundred and twenty (120) days. The pilot should be implemented for twelve months, and the pilot design should be inclusive of, but not limited to:

A recommended program to cultivate a pool of qualified businesses that manufacture goods in Los Angeles County (County). This program could include a Master Agreement of qualified manufacturers in the County.

A recommended definition of what qualifies as a business establishment that manufactures their goods in the County. This definition should include minimum criteria a local manufacturer must meet to qualify, such as adherence to responsible labor practices and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The definition should also include what manufacturers qualify as local to Los Angeles County.

A list of products currently produced in the County that meet the needs and requirements of County departments. From this list, ISD should recommend product(s) to procure from qualified local manufacturers for the duration of the pilot.

A recommended targeted percentage, dollar amount, or other portion of departmental procurement funding to be reserved by County departments for the pilot. This portion should come from existing and available funding already allocated for the procurement of goods and should be manageable within current departmental budgets, such as being budget-neutral or resulting in cost savings.

Recommended department(s) to participate in the pilot. These departments should include one or more that currently procure goods from outside the County (such as from manufacturers in other counties, states, or foreign countries or through a Group Purchasing Organization), but for which products are also produced by qualified local manufacturers. For the duration of the pilot, ISD will partner with the identified department(s) to shift procurement of those goods to qualified local manufacturers, subject to recommendations in the report.

A recommended outreach and communications strategy to engage local manufacturers and invite them to apply to participate in the pilot.

A recommendation for how to align with efforts underway by DEO to establish and promote a “Locally Owned” label for products manufactured in the County as part of the “Shop Local LA County” campaign.

A recommendation that ISD regularly report to the Board on implementation and findings, in collaboration with participating departments, as well as a final report with recommendations for a permanent program based on learnings from the pilot.

Recommended metrics to track pilot program implementation and impact.

Direct the Director of DEO, in coordination with the Director of ISD, to convene a stakeholder working group to advise on the design and structure of the pilot to ensure it reflects the reality of manufacturing in the County and meets the needs and requirements of the County departments, and to report back to the Board in writing in 120 days. The stakeholders should include, but not be limited to, industry organizations such as the Alliance for Responsible Apparel Manufacturing and Purchasing and the Made in LA Coalition; worker organizations such as the Garment Worker Center, Labor 411, UCLA Institute for Research on Labor and Employment, and the Sweatfree Purchasing Consortium; and key County department staff such as procurement and contracting managers, especially those in departments with comparatively large procurement of goods, such as the Department of Health Services.

Direct the Director of DEO, in coordination with the Director of ISD, to create an online interest form on the DEO, ISD, “Doing Business With,” or other County webpage where local manufacturers and stakeholders can express interest in participating in the pilot and sign up to receive updates on the pilot and any future actions related to this motion or the pilot, and report back to the Board in writing in 120 days on the completion of the form. (26-2344)
