Reward Extension in the Suspicious Disappearance of Gloria Huerta

On Monday, August 3, 2020, 27-year-old Gloria Huerta also known as “Jessica” was reported missing to the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department. It is reported Ms. Huerta was last seen on the 14700 block of East Avenue Q-14 in the City of Palmdale. Ms. Huerta is described as a Hispanic female, four-foot-eleven, 100 pounds, with brown eyes and brown hair.

LASD investigators believe an altercation occurred on the property where Ms. Huerta was staying in her trailer and believe foul play is involved. The trailer has also been reported missing and is described as an approximately 15 to 20-foot white trailer, with no markings and with the door towards the rear.

Ms. Huerta’s family and friends are extremely concerned for her safety and are pleading with the public for any information that will lead to her safe return home. LASD investigators are diligently investigating this case and are hopeful the extension of this reward will bring forth witnesses who may have information related to Ms. Huerta’s suspicious disappearance.
