Declaring November as Chinese American Film Festival and Chinese American Television Festival Month in Los Angeles County

The month of November commemorates E.D.I. Media’s 18th annual Chinese American Film Festival and Chinese American Television Festival. Each year, the event lasts through November and is one of the most anticipated celebrations of the year for the Chinese American community. The festival includes a film and television summit, showcases, and the Golden Angel Awards.

The festival brings together moviemakers, stars, and fans from China and American for an incredible, cross-cultural collaboration. It bridges the barriers of language and culture with a common love of film and television. The event proves that despite different backgrounds, everyone is united in their love of compelling stories. These efforts have helped to foster a meaningful friendship and mutual understanding between American and Chinese communities across Los Angeles County and continue to contribute to the residents of Los Angeles County.
