

Reestablish ~~Extension~~ of the Reward Offer in the Hit and Run of Pomona

Resident

On November 23, 2016, a 36-year-old resident of Pomona, California, ran out of gas while traveling on the westbound Interstate 10 Freeway, west of Kellogg Drive. The individual retrieved an empty gas canister and positioned himself over the steel guardrail with wooden posts, with the intention of crossing the eastbound lanes of the Interstate 10 Freeway. The individual began to walk in a southerly direction across the eastbound lanes when an unidentified vehicle struck him. The individual, unfortunately, succumbed to the injuries sustained from the hit, while the driver of the unidentified vehicle fled the scene.

To date, the California Highway Patrol (CHP) Investigators assigned to the case have not received any viable clues or information regarding this incident nor about the driver.

On May 8, 2018, the Los Angeles County (County) Board of Supervisors (Board) established a reward offer of $10,000 to assist in the investigation and re-established it on November 27, 2018, September 28, 2021, and on March 1, 2022. Investigators and the family of the victim are hopeful that increasing and renewing the reward will help motivate any witnesses(es) to come forward with information to help identify and arrest the person(s) responsible.

If anyone has any information related to this incident, please contact the CHP Baldwin Park office at (626) 338-1164.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS reestablish ~~extend~~ and increase the reward from $10,000 to $20,000 in exchange for information leading to the apprehension and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the heinous death of this individual, who tragically lost their life on November 23, 2016.
