Re-establish the Reward Offer in the Murder of Tauvaaga (Judy) Lauvai

On Saturday, June 16, 2018, at approximately 8:55 p.m., 53-year-old Tauvaaga Lauvai, also known as Judy, was shot and killed while on the front porch of her family's residence located on the 22700 block of Island Avenue in the city of Carson. Judy was visiting from out-of-state for an early Father's Day celebration with her family when an unknown suspect stopped their light-colored four-door sedan in front of the residence. The suspect(s) fired multiple gunshots toward the family, striking Judy and grazing a family member's leg, before fleeing southbound on Island Avenue. Judy was transported to Saint Francis Medical Center in Lynwood, where she ultimately succumbed to her injury.

At the time of her murder, Judy had been married for 28 years and was devoted to her four adult children and extended family, as well as to her church. She was a graduate of Carson High School and had spent over 50 years of her life as a resident of the city of Carson. She was employed as an Administrative Assistant for the University Technology Office at Arizona State University. Judy's family is devastated by the loss and has been very helpful during the investigation.

To date, investigators have received no viable clues regarding this tragedy. The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department (LASD) detectives believe that there are witnesses in the neighborhood that may have seen the suspect(s) leave the area or know
