Re-establish the Reward Offer in the Murder of Brian Greene

On Tuesday, January 19, 2021, at approximately 4:10 p.m., 34-year-old Brian Greene, a father of three and a full-time union carpenter, was shot and killed as he entered the driver’s seat of his dark purple Infiniti M37s, which was parked in the Jack’s Liquor Market parking lot at 4700 West Imperial Highway in the city of Hawthorne. A white BMW 320i that had followed Mr. Greene from his residence parked next to his Infiniti while he was inside of Jack’s Liquor Market. Upon Mr. Greene’s return, the rear passenger exited the white BMW 320i and fired several gunshots from a handgun before fleeing westbound on Imperial Highway towards the 405 freeway. Mr. Greene was hit multiple times by the gunfire and succumbed to his injuries.

The Los Angeles County (County) Sheriff’s Department (LASD) Homicide detectives believe there are witnesses in the neighborhood who may know the identities of the suspect(s) and/or the owner of the BMW 320i and that a reward motion by the County Board of Supervisors (Board) would help in solving the case. The Board established this reward on June 8, 2021; extended it on August 31, 2021, and re-established it on July 11, 2023. This reward expired on October 8, 2023, and needs to be re-established. Any individuals with information about this senseless crime are urged to contact LASD Homicide Bureau or Crime Stoppers.
