14.		Oppose	Monisha Parker	It's important to clarify that the Peninsula Committee Children's Hospital (PCCH) itself doesn't charge fees or offer fee waivers. As a non-profit organization raising funds for Children's Hospital Los Angeles (CHLA), their activities directly involve fundraising. Therefore, there's no specific "PCCH fee waiver" to be reduced. However, you might be referring to situations where the PCCH's fundraising activities involve fees (e.g., tickets to their events) and you're looking for ways to reduce those costs. Here are some approaches based on the context: 1. Clarify the specific fee you're referring to: * PCCH Horse Show: If you're looking for fee reductions related to the Portuguese Bend National Horse Show, you might consider: * Volunteer opportunities: The PCCH website mentions volunteer opportunities for the event. Volunteering could provide a way to participate without paying the entry fee. * Discounted tickets: Look for any early bird discounts or group rates offered by the PCCH. * Other PCCH events: If there are other PCCH events with fees, check their website or social media for any discount opportunities or inquire directly about potential assistance programs. 2. Consider alternative fundraising events: * Look for other fundraising events benefiting CHLA or other children's hospitals in Los Angeles County that offer free or lower-cost participation options. 3. Support the cause directly: * You can directly donate to CHLA or other children's hospitals in Los Angeles County, bypassing any event fees and contributing directly to their mission. 4. Advocate for wider accessibility: * If you believe certain PCCH fundraising activities could benefit from wider accessibility options like reduced fees or scholarships, you can contact them directly to express your concerns and suggestions. Remember, the PCCH and CHLA rely on fundraising to support their work with children in need. While reducing fees might not always be possible, exploring alternative options, volunteering, or directly supporting the cause are ways to contribute to their important work.
