40.		Favor	Karen Eyres
		Oppose	Monisha Parker	1. Increase funding: Advocate for increased funding from local government, private foundations, and corporate sponsors to support the expansion of mentorship services contracts in Los Angeles County. This will allow for more mentorship programs to be developed and implemented throughout the county. 2. Collaborate with community partners: Work with community organizations, schools, and businesses to establish partnerships and collaborations that can help expand mentorship services in the county. This can help reach a wider audience and provide more resources for mentorship programs. 3. Develop a comprehensive mentorship strategy: Create a comprehensive mentorship strategy that outlines the goals, objectives, and target population for mentorship services in Los Angeles County. This will help guide the expansion efforts and ensure that resources are allocated effectively. 4. Provide training and support for mentors: Offer training and support for mentors to ensure they have the skills and knowledge needed to effectively support their mentees. This can help improve the quality of mentorship services and increase the likelihood of positive outcomes for mentees. 5. Evaluate and track outcomes: Implement a system for evaluating and tracking the outcomes of mentorship programs in Los Angeles County. This will help identify successful strategies and areas for improvement, ultimately strengthening the overall impact of mentorship services in the county. 6. Engage stakeholders: Engage stakeholders, including mentees, mentors, community members, and policymakers, in the expansion of mentorship services in Los Angeles County. This can help build support for mentorship programs and ensure that they meet the needs of the community.
