MOTION BY SUPERVISOR KATHRYN BARGER April 9, 2024

Reward Extension in the Homicide Investigation of Murder Victim Terry Alford

On Friday, January 29, 2021, at approximately 5:00 p.m., Monrovia Police Department officers responded to reports of shots fired on the 100 block of Los Angeles Avenue in the City of Monrovia. Responding officers found 46-year-old Terry Alford in front of a residence suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. Officers performed life-sustaining aid until the arrival of the Monrovia Fire Department at which time Victim Alford was pronounced dead at the scene.

Victim Alford was visiting his family and was on the front porch outside of the residence when four male suspects were seen walking up to the residence on video. At least two of the suspects snuck behind the victim and shot Victim Alford multiple times. Los Angeles Sheriff's Department (LASD) is assisting the Monrovia Police Department in the investigation. LASD detectives believe the shooting was intentional, but that Victim Alford was not the intended target.
