| 11. | | Favor | Bobbi Jo Chavarria | I am thrilled to hear about the upcoming Green Leaders Summit hosted by Los Angeles County. It is crucial that such events bring together a diverse range of voices, including strong organized labor representation and environmental science and climate justice advocates. By ensuring that all stakeholders are present and actively engaged in discussions, we can work towards developing comprehensive and inclusive solutions that address the pressing environmental challenges we face today. I commend the County for prioritizing collaboration and look forward to the positive impact that the Summit will have on shaping a more sustainable and equitable future for our community. |
