99.		Favor	Bowen Cheng	Your mentorship isn't just about giving advice; it's about doing what's right, fostering a tight-knit community, and breaking down any barriers in the way. You keep it real, no fancy titles or walls, just honest talks that spark ideas and push things forward. Your passion for serving others is contagious, and it's obvious you're in it for all the right reasons. Thanks for being an awesome mentor, friend, and force for good.
			GENEVIEVE M CLAVREUL	Edward Yen is an excellent choice!
			Hyepin C Im	We applaud the appointment of Eddie Yen as the Executive Officer of Board of Supervisors. He is an exceptional candidate who has long standing years of leadership in the county but also has built bridges across diverse communities. We applaud also that the county is moving towards greater equity and representation for AAPI community who represents 17% of county population and also 20% of county employees. There is a still a gap in representation but this is a great first step.
