These issues are deeply interconnected and require a comprehensive and collaborative approach to ensure generational and life-long success for our community. Intergenerational homelessness and housing insecurity have far-reaching impacts on individuals and families, leading to cycles of poverty, instability, and trauma. It is essential that we invest in solutions that provide stable housing, wraparound support services, and pathways to economic stability for all residents, regardless of age or background. In addition, transition age youth face unique challenges as they navigate the transition from adolescence to adulthood. Many young people in our county are at risk of homelessness, incarceration, and system involvement due to a lack of support and resources. We must prioritize programs and services that empower youth to reach their full potential and break the cycle of generational poverty and instability. I urge the Board of Supervisors to prioritize funding and resources towards initiatives that address intergenerational homelessness and housing insecurity, support transition age youth, and promote long-term success for all residents of Los Angeles County. By working together, we can create a more equitable and thriving community for generations to come. Thank you for your attention to this important issue. Sincerely, Monisha Parker
