Fee Waiver for the Koreatown Youth & Community Center’s 23rd Annual Benefit

Concert

The Koreatown Youth and Community Center (KYCC) was established in 1975 to support a growing population of at-risk youth in Los Angeles. KYCC is the leading multiservice organization in Koreatown, supporting children and their families in the areas of education, health, housing, and finances. KYCC host a benefit concert to support the variety of programs and services provided by KYCC for the Korean American population in the greater Los Angeles area as well as the multiethnic Koreatown community. KYCC’s programs and services are directed toward recently immigrated, economically disadvantaged youth and families, and promote community socioeconomic empowerment. This year KYCC’s Annual Benefit Concert will take place on Thursday, September 12, 2024, at 7:00 p.m. at The Colburn School’s Zipper Hall. Attendees can look forward to a special night filled with musical performances, special guests, and more. The program will feature artists Kevin Woo, Arlissa, and Joey Quiñones, accompanied by the Korean American Youth Symphony, and master of ceremonies KCAL News anchor Suzie Suh and first black K-pop artist Alexandra Reid. In addition, KYCC partners with the Korean American Music Foundation (KAMF) is an instrumental part of the show. Collaborating with KYCC's artists, KAMF delivers unique performances, presenting renditions of the artists' songs at the concert with an orchestra arrangement. Under the auspices of KAMF, the Korean American Youth Symphony (KAYS) provides opportunities for young musicians to perform orchestral works. It is the orchestra's mission to help nurture the talent of youth while strengthening the performing arts for future generations.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors waive parking fees in the amount of $2,750 for 250 vehicles, excluding the cost of liability insurance, at the Walt Disney Concert Hall for attendees of the Koreatown Youth & Community Center's 23rd Annual Benefit Concert to be held on Thursday, September 12th, 2024 with a VIP reception starting at 5:45pm and concert starting at 7:00pm.
