Agenda #	Relate To	Position	Name	Comments
12.		Favor	Henry Fung	I love how the Board of Supervisors agenda tries so hard to be diplomatic about who they are investigating. Let's say his name - Mark Ridley-Thomas, and his misconduct is not "alleged" now, he was convicted by a jury of his peers for bribery and conspiracy, and should be spending his time in prison, instead of being out on bond, an ability afforded to him as a result of his $140,000 pension from both the County and City of Los Angeles and the ability to raise tens of thousands for an appeal unafforded to most other Los Angeles County residents. Instead of paying his penalty to society as a convicted felon, Ridley-Thomas is appearing with other officials at public events with no shame. I hope the Board members do say his name, condemn his criminality, and make sure the checks and balances are in place so this can never happen again.
		Other	Takaya King	I would like to provide comment on abuse, misconduct, neglect, and deprivation of permanent housing by LAHSA, PATH, First to Serve (TLS), and the failures of upper management who have no oversight and made up of poor quality low functioning people that are causing staff to quit.

RE: Notice of Plant Closure, Termination of Operations, and Layoff – Rialto Facility

Dear Francisco,

As you may know, Forest River (the “Company”) will be closing its California-based manufacturing facilities.

We are writing to provide you with notice that the Company will be closing its facility and terminating operations located at 255 S. Pepper Avenue, Rialto, CA 92376 on December 13, 2024. The Company expects that the closure and termination of operations will be permanent. You are an impacted employee. As a result, your position will be eliminated on December 13, 2024. Neither you nor any of the other affected employees have bumping rights.

It is our hope that you will continue in your position until the date of the lay off to ensure the Company can continue to efficiently operate. We appreciate your service and loyalty and wish you success in your future employment. We will provide you with additional separation information, including information regarding unemployment and COBRA benefits. In the meantime, please contact me if you have any questions.

If you have any questions or need any further information regarding this layoff, please contact Jeff Burian, General Manager, at (951) 357-2327, ext. 112.

Sincerely,

Jeff Burian
General Manager
