1.		Oppose	Ben Abrams	I and friends live in rental apartments. I urge you not to place a cap on rental increases. The properties are already not being taken care of because there's not enough income coming in to pay the landlords bills. If you pass this bill, housing will become uninhabitable, property owners will take their investments elsewhere, insurance costs will continue to increase and investors including lenders (banks, insurance companies, etc. will shy away from investing in our amazing county). I urge you not to pass rent control limiting rental increases....
