			Byron Jose	Thank you Supervisor Hahn for uplifting the diverse voices throughout District 4 and LA County. TransLatin@ Coalition and TGI leaders look forward to engagement and representation in various county commissions and collaboration with stakeholders.
			Liza Caballos	I believe it's crucial to have a diverse representation of women's experiences in all public forums, including those advocating for the transgender community. This includes the lived experiences of cisgender women, as well as transgender women. By acknowledging the unique perspectives of both groups, we can create more inclusive and effective policies that address the needs of all women
