| 52.  |           | Oppose     | Sarah Smart | I am a senior citizen who last year fell victim to an automobile accident fraudster named Marco Chalicolaj who hit my car to profit from my insurance company. There are rings of these maniacs making life miserable for our seniors while making a profit from stupid insurance adjusters who are too lazy to investigate an obvious crime. Rather than soaking the public yet again, these already RICH INSURANCE COMPANIES should be the ones investing in these anti-fraud programs. We The People already pay exorbitant insurance rates—let those companies use that money to stop the fraud, rather than to line their pockets! |
