Providing Relief Through the Arts: Parking Fee Waiver for Residents, First Responders, and Support Teams Attending Kelli O'Hara Concert Presented by LA Opera

Presented by LA Opera, Kelli O'Hara, the Tony Award-winning Broadway star, will perform a special one-night-only concert at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion. The evening will feature a captivating mix of Broadway classics, opera arias, and some of O'Hara's personal favorites. Known for her acclaimed roles in The King and I, South Pacific, and Bridges of Madison County, O'Hara is celebrated for her extraordinary ability to seamlessly blend musical theater and classical music.

Accompanied by a talented ensemble, O'Hara will perform a carefully curated selection of songs that highlight her remarkable vocal range and storytelling prowess. As part of LA Opera's commitment to bringing world-class performances to diverse audiences, this concert offers a unique opportunity to experience one of Broadway's brightest stars in a spectacular venue. The evening promises to be a memorable celebration of O'Hara's artistry, showcasing her versatility in an intimate and unforgettable setting at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion.

In recognition of the efforts and sacrifices made by residents of evacuated areas, first responders, and support teams during recent emergencies, LA Opera is offering up
