			Steven Hui	Some of the Mom and pop rental owner are fire victim also. We have financial hardship also. The responsibility to help needy tenants is government responsibility, not property owner! It is government responsibility to determine who is qualify for assistance. Not by tenant self attest or put the burden on property owner. There is already Disaster Recovery assistance for needy tenants from FEMA and various charity organizations . The burden should not be on the property owners. We did not cause the disaster! It is partially caused by our government's policy!
