Agenda #	Relate To	Position	Name	Comments
7.		Other	Zoe Muntaner	As a Puertorican female transplant I would like to have more support from the County when it comes to issues that affect Hispanic Women. The LA County is actively pursuing defense of something indefensible. The Writ of Mandate filed in relation to the Santa Monica City Clerk negligence of managing the nomination papers of my candidacy for SMC Board of Trustees is not a good look for LA County as you approach Latina History Day. Actions speak louder than words. The evidence speaks by itself. It is time for the LA County Counsel to drop this and focus on supporting Latina Women that run for office and do the real work of collecting her own signatures and filing an appropriate ballot designation.

Topic or issue you would like to raise before the City Council:

At the core of the negligence issue of the Santa Monica City Clerk evaluation of my nomination papers is the fact that she refused to accept my ballot designation as Small Business Owner. That resulted from delays in sending my nomination papers to be verified by the Los Angeles County RR/CC. Consider the fact that the attached Santa Monica Business license, Tax Invoice from December 30 2016 establishes Compassionate Santa Monica as a legitimate business in the "City." Furthermore the City did business with Compassionate Santa Monica in 2024 and Nikima Newsome was aware of that through confirmation with Lisa Parsons. See attachments. This exposed the "City" to litigation. It should not go ignored. There is an active WRIT of Mandate in the courts.

Hi Zoe,

The City Attorney's office is responsible for responding to subpoenas. I am unsure of their process, but they should respond within the statutory timeframe that is allowed for a response. Their office can be reached at attorney@santamonica.gov or 310-458-8336 if you have any questions for them.

David,

I messaged you a couple of weeks ago to confirm that you received the invoice and that the check was ready to pick up. When I went to my mailbox yesterday, it was not there. I also emailed Lisa. I need to get this closed before the year ends and am planning to leave town soon, the sooner, the better.

Kindly reply; thank you.
