Proclaiming March 7, 2025 as Latina History Day

For over 35 years, Hispanas Organized for Political Equality (HOPE) has advanced political and economy parity for Latinas through their developed women's leadership and advocacy programming within the areas of education, healthcare, economic empowerment, civic participation, and gender and racial/ethnic justice. HOPE's innovative programming and events have served more than 60,000 Latinas.

HOPE's events bring Latinas together to advocate, celebrate, and learn, strengthening community ties and reminding each other that all can be achieved when we work together. This includes the Latina History Day held annually to recognize and celebrate the historic and current achievements of Latinas during Women's History Month, while embracing the rich diversity of the Latina experience. From high school students to professionals, all take part in forums and workshops on career, community, education and financial empowerment. This year HOPE marks the 34th Latina History Day, and focuses on its theme "Inspire: Unleash Your Creativity." As such, proclaiming

Latina History Day during “Women’s History Month” emphasizes the important role Latinas play in the County and our society.

WE, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors proclaim March 7, 2025 as Latina History Day.
