

BYLAWS FOR LOS ANGELES COUNTY COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

ARTICLE I - NAME

The Commission shall be known as Los Angeles County Commission for Women (LACCW). As used in these Rules of Procedures the word “Commission” refers to the Los Angeles County Commission for Women.

ARTICLE II - LEGAL AUTHORITY

The Commission for Women was authorized by Ordinance No. 11, 181 which added Article CVIII to Ordinance No. 4099, the Administrative Code August 29, 1975.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

The Commission in performing its duties will represent the special interests and concerns of women of all races, ethnic and cultural backgrounds, religious convictions, social circumstances, and sexual orientation. The Commission has structured itself to encourage the active participation of all women in Los Angeles County.

ARTICLE IV - DUTIES

The Commission shall have the following duties:

- (1) To study and/or investigate by means of meetings, conferences, public hearings, or forums, conditions which allegedly demonstrate discrimination or prejudice because of sex, marital status, and sexual orientation.
- (2) To provide a coordinating function with respect to the activities of the many community groups and organizations working for the equal rights and special concerns of women.
- (3) To research, prepare and disseminate information in the field of sex discrimination and prejudice and to advise the residents of the County, Board of Supervisors and the Departments and agencies of the County, or other organizations and institutions on matters involving the needs of women or relating to discrimination and prejudice on account of sex, marital status, or sexual orientation.
- (4) To investigate complaints or to initiate its own investigations of practices of discrimination and instances of prejudice against any person because of sex, marital status, or sexual orientation.

- (5) To recommend necessary procedures, programs, or legislation to promote and insure equal rights and opportunities for all women.
- (6) To render to the Board of Supervisors at least once each calendar year a report of its activities.
- (7) To develop and maintain a talent bank of women which can be used in a variety of ways, including but not limited, to assisting the Civil Service Commission in recruiting qualified women to serve as members of qualification appraisal boards and the Commission for Women nominating qualified women for appointment by the Board of Supervisors to vacancies on boards and commissions of the County. To provide resumes for any governmental agency.
- (8) To provide a coordinating function with respect to the activities of County departments and commissions involved in women's problems and to the many community groups and organizations working for the equal rights and special concerns of women.
- (9) To request of any County departments information, services, facilities, and any other assistance for the purpose of furthering the objectives of this Commission.

ARTICLE V - MEMBERSHIP

Under Chapter 3.64 of the Los Angeles County Code, the membership of the Commission shall consist of fifteen (15) persons who are appointed by, and serve at the pleasure of the Board of Supervisors. The terms of the members shall be for two years. No members shall serve more than two consecutive terms unless waived by the Board. All members shall serve until a successor is duly appointed and qualified.

ARTICLE VI - OFFICERS

The officers of the commission shall consist of a President, Vice-President and Treasurer. No President shall be eligible for recommendation for election to more than one consecutive two-year term. As provided by ordinance, the officers shall be elected by the Commission.

The President of the commission is required to serve on the commission at least two years and to chair at least one standing committee.

At the regular meeting in February every two years, an Ad-Hoc Nomination Committee shall be formed by the President from among those Commissioners who volunteer and those the President selects. The President shall ensure that the five supervisorial districts are represented equally on the Ad-Hoc Nominating Committee. Only Nominating Committee members and staff may attend Ad-Hoc Nominating Committee meeting(s). The Committee shall oversee the entire election process and shall serve until being dismissed following the election of officers at the June meeting. Members of the Nominating Committee are not eligible to be nominated for election.

Commissioners who choose to run for office shall notify Commission staff of the office for which they intend to run via email, complete the "Declaration of Candidacy" form and submit the Declaration to the Office of the Commission no later than the regular scheduled meeting in May.

The "Declaration of Candidacy" form shall be included in the nominating process. The full slate, in alphabetical order, shall be sent to each member electronically not less than ten days prior to the regular meeting in June, at which time the annual election shall take place. Elections shall be conducted by written ballot at the regular meeting in June. Votes will be tallied by Commission staff and decided by a plurality vote of those in attendance. For the purpose of compliance with the Brown Act, ballots will be preserved in Commission records and made available for inspection upon request.

ARTICLE VII - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

A. President

1. The President shall preside at meetings of Commission.
2. The President shall appoint all members of Committees, and Chairpersons of each unless otherwise provided for in these Rules of Procedures. Such appointments shall be made annually, based upon the preference indicated by each Commissioner for membership of such committees. Appointments to every committee shall be ratified by the Commission. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all committees, except the Nominating Committee. All Commissioners shall serve on at least one standing committee.
3. The President, or designated appointee, shall represent the Commission at public functions.
4. The President shall be required to approve all Commission matters, other than matters decided by the Commission itself, before being submitted to the Board of Supervisors.
5. The President shall report to the appointing Supervisor any Commission members having three (3) consecutive unexcused absences or unexcused absences from fifty percent of the regular commission meetings in any half of the calendar year.
6. The President shall be required to write annual report at the end of each fiscal year and to submit it to the Board of Supervisors.

B. Vice-President

The Vice-President shall perform all duties which may be assigned by the President or majority of the Commission and will perform the duties of the President in the absence of the President.

C. Treasurer

The primary role of Treasurer is to monitor, oversee and report on the fiscal activities of the commission and to make recommendations to the commission to ensure that they successfully achieve their mission. The duties of the Treasurer include the following:

1. The Treasurer will assist in the preparation of the Commission's annual budget.
2. Treasurer will assist in the preparation of the Commission's Annual Fiscal Activity Report.
3. The Treasurer will research revenue sources in support of commission activities such as donations and sponsorships.
4. The Treasurer will make recommendations to ensure that fiscal activities are executed ethically without the appearance of impropriety.
5. Through Commission Staff, the Treasurer will ensure that all fiscal activities conform to Executive Office policy and procedure and Los Angeles County Fiscal Guidelines.
6. The Treasurer is responsible for reporting the status of the Commission's Trust Fund each month.
7. With the assistance of staff; the Treasurer may disperse Trust Fund monies with a majority vote of a quorum of the full Commission.
8. In the absence of the President and Vice President, the Treasurer may authorize staff to make incidental expenditures on behalf of the commission to promote commission functions and/or activities.

ARTICLE VIII - COMMISSION MEMBERS

- A. The Commission shall have a general supervision of all matters pertaining to the Commission, and through the Executive Assistant to its staff.
- B. It shall be the duty of all Commission members to attend all meetings of the Commission except in case of illness or other emergencies. If a member of the Commission shall fail to attend three (3) consecutive regular meetings or fifty percent of regular meetings in any half of a calendar year without being excused by said Commission, such absences shall be reported to the appointing Supervisor.

- C. The Executive Assistant shall advise the appointing Supervisor when vacancies in Commission membership occur.
- D. It shall be the policy of this Commission that no Commissioner will engage in a personal attack in public on any other member of this Commission. There are, and will continue to be, differences of opinion on the myriad of issues the Commission considers, and that is as it should be and reflects differences among the millions of women this Commission represents. However, no personal attacks in public will be countenanced and such behavior will be subject to censure by the Commission.

ARTICLE IX - COMMITTEES

The Commission may establish standing or ad hoc committees at its discretion, define their area of operation and concern, and establish rules of operation.

A standing committee or ad hoc committee may act within the delegated authority without further approval by the Commission. Any activity that implies action by the full commission or requires Commission funds beyond the amount designated and approved in the annual budget must be brought before the full Commission for approval.

The President of the Commission shall annually appoint the chair, vice-chair, and commissioners of all committees. In some cases, community members may be appointed by the president to serve ex officio on standing committees. Chairs and vice-chairs of all committees must be members of the Commission. The Executive Committee (whose composition will be the President, Vice President, Treasurer and Immediate Past President), Ad Hoc Luncheon Committee and Nominating Committee shall include only Commissioners.

The responsibilities of standing Committee Chairs are to: establish annual work-plans for the committee; schedule, set agenda and chair committee meetings report regularly to the Commission on Committee activities and actions, prepare an annual report on Committee activities and actions. Committee chairs are expected to hold at least four (4) meetings a year, with the exception of the Nominating Committee.

A majority plus one of appointed Committee members constitutes a quorum for Committee meetings. As meetings cannot take place without a quorum, committee members that miss 33 percent or more of committee meetings will be removed from the Committee on recommendation of the chair and approval by the President.

When a Chair of a standing committee fails to convene one (1) meeting at least quarterly, the Executive Committee shall review the committee to assure that it has a viable function. The Executive Committee, by majority vote, has the authority to dissolve the committee or replace the committee chair.

ARTICLE X - EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT

The Executive Assistant of the Commission shall serve as head of the Commission staff. Subject to the supervision of the Commission and pursuant to appropriate Civil Service provisions of the Los Angeles County Charter, the Executive Assistant of the Commission is responsible, as the administrative head of the Commission staff, for implementing and executing the policy and programs of the Commission. The Executive Assistant is also responsible for acting as Secretary to the Commission with the following duties:

1. The keeping of a faithful record of all proceedings of the Commission;
2. Report regularly on all activities of the staff;
3. Report all correspondence to the Commission;
4. Advise the appointing Supervisor one month prior to expirations of appointments;
5. Advise appointing Supervisors when vacancies in Commission membership occur.

ARTICLE XI – MEETINGS AND AGENDAS

- A. Meetings shall take place on the second Monday of every month, or as determined by the Commission. The Commission may change the date of the meeting at its discretion, so long as at least one regular meeting is held each month. Consideration shall be given to holding meetings in different geographic areas at times convenient for public attendance.
- B. One (1) more than half of the current membership of the Commission shall constitute a quorum.
- C. Special meetings of the Commission may be held on call of the President or any four (4) members of the Commission. The call shall be written notice by fax, an electronic mail or an overnight mail (3) days prior shall be deemed sufficient notice.
- D. The President of the Commission is responsible for formulating the agenda. Requests from Commissioners, County departments or organizations for placing an item on the agenda shall be sent to the President by the second Friday of the month preceding the meeting at which the agenda item is requested to be placed. Items requested by order of the Board of Supervisors shall be placed on the agenda of the next Commission meeting. Emergency items may only be placed on the agenda in accordance with the Brown Act.
- E. Agendas with supporting materials where available and minutes from the prior meeting will be sent via email to all commissioners two business days before the scheduled meeting, or when the agenda is and publicly posted 72 hours prior to the meeting in accordance with the Brown Act.

ARTICLE XII - AMENDMENTS

These rules may be amended by a majority vote of the members present at any regular Commission meeting. Notice of Intention to amend the rules must be sent to members of the Commission ten (10) days in advance of the date set for consideration of such amendments.

ARTICLE XIII - PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Unless otherwise prescribed in these Rules of Procedure, all Commission meetings shall be governed by The Procedural Rules adopted at the organizational meeting of the Commission.
