Donation of Passenger Vans to Community-Based Organizations

The Internal Services Department (ISD) administers the County’s Surplus Equipment Program which makes end-of-life County equipment available to approved community-based organizations. Two passenger vans have become available and are available for donation.

Established in 1998, A New Way of Life (ANWOL) is a nationally acclaimed reentry program for women. The organization provides formerly incarcerated women with services that support them in their transition back to community, including but not limited to: housing, pro bono legal services, case management and family reunification.

Water Drop was founded in 2020, during the height of the COVID pandemic, in response to the need for clean, accessible water in Skid Row. Volunteers are mobilized each week to distribute water by the pallets as well as snacks and other essential supplies.

Both non-profit organizations, A New Way of Life and Water Drop, serve and support our most vulnerable residents and the vehicle donation will help to support
