October 14, 2025

Parking Fee Waiver for Bioscience LA's Economic Summit

On Thursday, October 16, 2025, from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., the Economic Summit: Seizing LA County’s Biomanufacturing Moment will convene at the Music Center. This summit is the centerpiece of BioscienceLA Week, which unfolds October 14–17 and includes an opening reception, a workforce day, and an innovation day.

The summit aims to bring together leading voices in life sciences, economic development, trade, real estate, and public policy to strategize how Los Angeles County can capitalize on its assets — ports, infrastructure, talent, healthcare institutions, and geographic connectivity — to become a leading hub for biomanufacturing.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors waive parking fees in the amount of $4,400 at The Music Center parking garage (Lot 14) for 220 vehicles at $20 per vehicle, excluding the cost of liability insurance, for guests attending Bioscience LA's Economic Summit on Thursday, October 16, 2025, at the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration
