Agenda #	Relate To	Position	Name	Comments
Public Comment			The following individuals submitted comments on agenda item:
		Oppose	Linda Patten	Against another taking from local landlords with continuous eviction and rent moratoriums. Please vote NO on the ICE measure!
		Other	Christopher T Campbell	Segway Ex-Con security guard. I have a hard time understanding certain things I see it security officer driving down the road or actually on the sidewalk actually up against the businesses with a chariot scooter that looks like a Segway. During his operations he goes from down here at this location! (Panera Bread Location - 12131 Ventura Blvd, Studio City, CA 91604) too (16624 Ventura boulevard Enico CA Panera Bread Location) Now there's three wheel Segway that looks like a chariot driving down the sidewalk at 30 miles an hour just doesn't fit the idiot security job! Numerous times over the years I've caught him follow me around up and down the street hanging out calling all these other people going into the bank even threatening to beat the shit out of me when I'm alone in the public in the dark (this is an old white Ukrainian guy) (now it's an overweight Black Guy Riding on the Sidewalk on a Segway Chariot). but how you'd never see him doing his job running up and down from downtown all the way out here to West side of Ventura Boulevard at 16624 Ventura boulevard. How what outfit gives him the right to drive up and down the sidewalks with the Segway scooter that looks like a chariot at 30 mph telling people where to go and how to do their business in public when he doesn't have an organization that he works for he's just driving up and down the street with the arrogant attitude and a security outfit on a Segway running over people on the sidewalk. hell if he work for the shopping center why it isn't the Segway over there at the shopping center and him doing his job instead of running all the way down Ventura Boulevard? While he's going business to business and telling everybody I'm a terrorist and a homosexual and all this other shit so that they can throw me out of their facilities because he's going to be the instigator in the whole fucking problem.

Shannon Seidenglanz	I am outraged by the Board's decision to allocate taxpayer funds to undocumented immigrants under the guise of an emergency declaration. This is not just misguided — it is a betrayal of the very people who fund this county and rely on its services. We have veterans sleeping on sidewalks. Families displaced by wildfires. Seniors choosing between rent and medicine. Legal residents — citizens — who have lost everything in emergencies and still wait for help. And yet, the Board has chosen to divert public money to individuals who are not legally authorized to be here. This is not compassion. It is negligence. Taxpayer dollars must be used lawfully and responsibly. Providing rent relief and legal aid to those who are in violation of federal immigration law is not only unacceptable — it undermines the rule of law and erodes public trust in our institutions. If LA County wants to help people in crisis, start with our own. Start with those who have followed the law, paid their taxes, and built this community. Start with the wildfire victims, the homeless veterans, the struggling families who are being pushed aside while the Board plays politics. I demand that you reverse this decision and restore integrity to our county's budget. We are watching. We are voting. And we will not stand by while our leaders abandon the people they were elected to serve.
