Parking Fee Waiver for 127th Golden Dragon Parade

The Golden Dragon Parade in Chinatown, hosted by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles, is the largest Asian cultural celebration in Southern California and features marching bands, floats, and entertainers. For over a century, the Golden Dragon Parade has celebrated the Lunar New Year. This year's parade is being held during the "Year of the Horse", which represents courage, vitality, strength, and forward momentum. This year's parade expects to attract around 100,000 spectators.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors recognize Saturday, February 21, 2026 as the 127th Annual Golden Dragon Parade, and waive parking fees in the amount of $1,000 for approximately 100 vehicles at Lot 45 in Chinatown, excluding the cost of liability insurance, on Saturday, February 21, 2026.
