While during our inspection, there was no one being held in courtline (waiting for the final buses to arrive), the toilets on courtline were beyond disgusting. There were visible flies, and one toilet in particular, in Cell #32 was filled to the brim with feces and urine - another drop and it would go over the sides. This biohazard issue was concerning to the commissioners to see. Also, Cells A, B, and C had massive amounts of human biohazards inside toilets, attracting flies and bugs. Commissioners were told that inmate workers would come and clean it out before the next round of buses arrived. It did not seem they had proper PPE to conduct such cleaning. The Watch Commander also stated that cleaning would be conducted more thoroughly and regularly by the contracted cleaning team -- the commission was not aware of when that next cleaning would be. This means that the next arriving bus would be subjected to human waste within the cells they are made to stay in.

82. Deputy Staffing COMMENTS RE: Quality of Interactions w/Detainees

Overstaffing of Deputies: 8 deputies were observed in the first processing booth after individuals were brought in from the bus, with nobody around and nothing to do, sitting/chatting. The area right after this one could have used additional staff support at that time, with 1 deputy: 30 IPs. Similarly, Sybil Brand and COC observed 6 deputies walking alongside a cart that transported one IP who was reported intoxicated, chained, and in the cart. We observed 5 individuals surrounding 1 IP who was getting a MH evaluation. We also observed 12 deputies watching 2 IP in mental health area of IRC processing.

Visible mold and flooding issues throughout old side. Ceiling looks like it'll fall in.
· Leaks were observed between cells 10 & 11 in courtline as well as a leak in the hallway

Cell 38 was flooded on courtline side.· Old Side Court Line cells were noticeably extremely filthy, with many of the cells containing mold on the walls and around faucets/toilet, toilets clogged and flies circling in the cell. Trustees are responsible for deep cleaning the filth in the cells every dy.
