Retroactive Parking Fee Waiver for July Receptions

The Board of Supervisors recognizes individuals or entities during the Board of Supervisors meetings, and presents scrolls.

On Tuesday, July 21, 2026 the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors recognized the Los Angeles County firefighters and personnel, along with their K-9 partners, who deployed to Venezuela in response to one of the most devastating natural disasters in the nation’s history. Known as the Los Angeles County Fire Department’s Urban Search and Rescue USA-2 Task Force, the personnel and six canine teams deployed from Los Angeles County, completing an 11-day mission that provided critical search, rescue, and recovery support to communities devastated by the earthquakes.

A week thereafter, on Tuesday, July 28, 2026 the Board of Supervisors recognized the Dedication to Restoration Through Empowerment, Advocacy, and Mentoring (DREAM) Court in celebration of their 10th anniversary. The DREAM Court is a specialized juvenile dependency courtroom staffed by trained, knowledgeable attorneys, social workers, and judges dedicated to serving youth experiencing commercial sexual exploitation and their families.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors retroactively waive the
